Notice Type: Approval Notice

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) has approved your Application for Provisional Unlawful Presence Waiver, Form I-601A.

USCIS has notified the Department of State of the approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver application. This completes all USCIS action on your application. If you have any questions about your immigrant visa processing, please contact the National Visa Center (NVC) directly by e-mail using the online public inquiry form at nvc.state.gov/ask. You can also call NVC's Customer Assistance Center at (603) 334-0700, Monday through Friday from 7:00 am to midnight, Eastern Standard Time. If you have questions about your Diversity Visa processing, please contact the Kentucky Consular Center (KCC). The KCC's email address is KCCDV@state.gov and its telephone number is (606) 526-7500.

The approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver is subject to the conditions established in Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 212.7(e)(12). Under this regulation, the approval will not take effect until each of these requirements is met:

- You have left the United States; AND
- You have appeared at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate for an interview in connection with your application for an immigrant visa based on an approved immediate relative visa petition; AND
- A U.S. consular officer has determined, in light of the approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver, that you are otherwise eligible for an immigrant visa based on an approved immediate relative visa petition.

NOTE: The approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver only covers the grounds of inadmissibility for unlawful presence in the United States under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i)(I) and (II) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).

A consular officer will determine whether you are subject to any other grounds of inadmissibility and whether you are eligible for an immigrant visa at the time of your visa interview at a U.S. Embassy or consulate. If a consular officer determines that you are inadmissible for any reason other than prior unlawful presence in the United States or if a consular officer determines that you are otherwise ineligible for the immigrant visa, this provisional waiver is automatically revoked. As a result, the consular officer may refuse the immigrant visa or you may need to submit to USCIS a separate waiver application (the Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility), requesting a waiver for each ground of inadmissibility (if waivable under the current law) that may apply to you, including prior unlawful presence under INA section 212(a)(9)(B).

Limitation of Approved Provisional Unlawful Presence Waivers

Approval of your provisional unlawful presence waiver DOES NOT:

- Address any other grounds of inadmissibility besides unlawful presence; for example criminal grounds, fraud, or prior removals.
- Change the requirement that you must depart the United States to obtain an immigrant visa at a U.S. Embassy or consulate abroad.
- Give you any legal immigration status or allow you to obtain a legal status in the United States.
- Protect you from removal proceedings or stay the execution of a final order of removal.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
