E

THIS NOTICE DOES NOT GRANT ANY IMMIGRATION STATUS OR BENEFIT.

The intervent of the set of the	Receipt Number USCIS Account Number		Case Type 1765 - APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION Part M21/2020 Part Inf2 Image: Description of the state of
M21/2020 1 of 2 Image: Construction of the state of the	10/17/2019		92 6 j
 Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: CO9P Valid from 04/21/2020 to 04/20/2021 We have malled an official notice about this case (and any relevant documentation) according to the mailing preferences you chose on Form G-28, Notice Of Entry of Appearance as Attomey or Accredited Representative. This is a courtesy copy, not the official notice. What the Official Notice Said We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form 1-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization proceeding to an an EAD card of Form 1-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card, Igeuse check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please indication and advance parole optice in an information on the card, please endocide optice in advance parole. A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected. Your EAD card. Protient change ducational parogram levels or transfor to another school. Working in the United States without maintaining status may result in sourcing unawidu presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-526 was approved for you as a student requesting optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your Abundoning your Form 1-485. Show you	Notice Date	Page
 Co RICHARD B BRACKEN R BRACKEN AND ASSOCIATES 200 N RUFERSIDE AVE RIALTO CA 92376 Class: CO9P Valid from 04/21/2020 to 04/20/2021 Valid From 0	04/21/2020	1 of 2
 Co RICHARD B BRACKEN R BRACKEN AND ASSOCIATES 200 N RUFERSIDE AVE RIALTO CA 92376 Class: CO9P Valid from 04/21/2020 to 04/20/2021 Valid From 0				Notice Type: Approval Notice
R BRACKEN AND ASSOCIATES 290 N RIVERSIDE AVE RIALTO CA 92376 Valid from 04/21/2020 to 04/20/2021 We have mailed an official notice about this case (and any relevant documentation) according to the mailing preferences you chose on Form G-28, Notic of Entry of Appearance as Atomey or Accredited Representative. This is a courtesy copy, not the official notice. What the Official notice about this case (and any relevant documentation) according to the mailing preferences you chose on Form G-28, Notic of Entry of Appearance as Atomey or Accredited Representative. This is a courtesy copy, not the official notice. What the Official Notice Said We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form 1-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization bure been approved for advance parele. Your EAD card in proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during th dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization. When your receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below: A holtocopy of this notice, and E vidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change. The 1-56X as approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employme authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States with autohrization your estalt in unrel to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel of the United States with autohrization will be automatically terminated if you change education	CORICHARI) B BRACKEN
 290 N RIVERSIDE AVE RIALTO CA 92376 We have mailed an official notice about this case (and any relevant documentation) according to the mailing preferences you chose on Form G-28, Notic of Entry of Appearance as Atomey or Accredited Representative. This is a courtery copy, not the official notice. What the Official Notice Said We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form 1-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form I-766) to you separately. The EAD card or form 1-1512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during th dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization. When you receive your EAD card, Please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please multiple that all the information on the card is correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change. If the 1-656 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employment authorization may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in accruing unadvolf presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form 1-485. Show RIALTO CA 92376 We have mailed an official notice about this case (and any relevant documentation) according to the mailing preferences you chose on Form G-28, Notic of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative. This is a courtesy copy, not the official notice . What the Official Notice Said We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form 1-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We vill see and your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form 1-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employment authorization. When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below: A use the EAD card with the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change. If the 1-56 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without maintaining status may result in accruing unlawful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole Ho 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form 1-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the 1-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. while the 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative. This is a courtesy copy, not the official notice. What the Official Notice Said We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form 1-485. Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form 1-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card, will ave an allowed to work in the United Status. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during th dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization. When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below: • A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected, • Your EAD card, • A photecopy of this notice, and • Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate official name change. If the 1-56 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employme authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States with authorization way result in your removal form the United States for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form 1-485. Show your unexpired EAD card will the 1-512 cndorsement to the ship or aritime, and it can let you on board to trave to the United States sho a ayou EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request p
of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative. This is a courtesy copy, not the official notice. What the Official Notice Said We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form 1-485. Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form 1-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card, will ave an allowed to work in the United Status. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during th dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization. When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below: • A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected, • Your EAD card, • A photecopy of this notice, and • Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate official name change. If the 1-56 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employme authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States with authorization way result in your removal form the United States for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form 1-485. Show your unexpired EAD card will the 1-512 cndorsement to the ship or aritime, and it can let you on board to trave to the United States sho a ayou EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request p				the second s
We have approved your application for employment authorization and advance parole based on your pending Form 1-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form 1-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card, will any ou are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during th dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization. When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below: A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected, Your EAD card. A photocopy of this notice, and Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change. If the 1-765 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employment authorization way result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States with authorization way result in your removal from the United States or denial for re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in your removal from the United States or denial or rearty, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in your removal from the United States or denial or rearty, and remaining in the Unit
 Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (also known as an EAD card or Form 1-766) to you separately. The EAD card will have an 1-512 endorsement on it, which indicates that you have been approved for advance parole. Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during th dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization. When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below: A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected, Your EAD card. A photocopy of this notice, and Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate of official name change. If the 1-765 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employme authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States with authorization may result in accuring unlawful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form 1-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the 1-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole into the United States, so tog and your advance parole, CBP office	What the Officia	I Notice Said dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization. When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below: A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected, Your EAD card, A photocopy of this notice, and Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change. If the 1-765 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without maintaining status may result in accruing unlawful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The I-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form I-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the I-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole; into the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States, please note the following information: Parole into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP m still refuse to parole you into the United States. All one as "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form I-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for beir inadmissible to the U.S. Parole into	Permanent Reside	ence or Adjust Status. W	e will send your Employment Authorizati	on Document (also known as an EAD card or Form I-766) to you mail all of the following to the office listed below: A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected, Your EAD card. Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate of official name change. If the 1-565 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employmed authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States with authorization may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in azornig unaxyful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form I-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the 1-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole into the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form 1-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. Vindawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United S
 Your EAD card. A photocopy of this notice, and Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate of official name change. If the 1-765 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employme authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without maintaining status may result in accruing unlawful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form 1-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the 1-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole into the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States. Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are still industises to request parole to the turns of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP m still refuse to parole you into the United States. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form 1-485, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from				is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please
 A photocopy of this notice, and Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate of official name change. If the 1-56 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without authorization may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in accruing unlawful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form I-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the I-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole yinto the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are elligible to come into the United States. Constructed and advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP missible to the U.S. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form I-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United S			on needs to be corrected,
If the 1-765 was approved for you as a student requesting Optional Practical Training (OPT): Please note that your EAD and your OPT employment authorization will be automatically terminated if you change educational program levels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without authorization may result in your removal from the United States or denial of re-entry, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may result in accruing unlawful presence. Consult your Designated School Official for additional details. Advanced Parole The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form I-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the 1-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole into the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States, please note the following information: • Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP m still refuse to parole you into the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. • Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred form admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred form admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATIO	A photocoEvidence	opy of this notice, and to show what the correct	t information should be. For example, if y	ou need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate of
 The 1-512 endorsement on your EAD card is proof that, while your Form 1-485 is pending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form 1-485. Show your unexpired EAD card with the 1-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole into the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States, please note the following information: Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP m still refuse to parole you into the United States. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form 1-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States, you were unlawfully present for one year or mor you are inadmissible for the years. Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed. 	If the I-765 was authorization will authorization may	approved for you as a be automatically termi result in your removal	ated if you change educational program le from the United States or denial of re-entr	evels or transfer to another school. Working in the United States without y, and remaining in the United States without maintaining status may
 Show your unexpired EAD card with the 1-512 endorsement to the ship or airline, and it can let you on board to travel to the United States. As long as yo EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole into the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States, please note the following information: Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP mistill refuse to parole you into the United States. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form 1-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States, you were unlawfully present for one year or mor you are inadmissible for the years. Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed. 	Advanced Parole
 EAD card has not expired, you may use it multiple times to request parole into the United States. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can parole into the U.S. for up to one (1) year. Before you leave the United States, please note the following information: Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP mustill refuse to parole you into the United States. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form I-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or mor you are inadmissible for ten years. Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed. National Benefits Center U.S. CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION SVC P.O. Box 648003 	The I-512 endors	ement on your EAD car	l is proof that, while your Form I-485 is p	ending, you may travel abroad without abandoning your Form I-485.
 Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, a CBP officer must still inspect you at a port of entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP must still refuse to parole you into the United States. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form 1-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for beir inadmissible to the U.S. Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or mory you are inadmissible for ten years. 	EAD card has not	t expired, you may use i eligible to come into the United States according to the terms of this advance parole. Even though USCIS approved your advance parole, CBP mastill refuse to parole you into the United States. Parole into the United States is not an "admission" into the U.S. If we deny your Form 1-485, you may be subject to removal proceedings for bein inadmissible to the U.S. Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or more you are inadmissible for ten years. 	Before you leave	the United States, pleas	e note the following information:
 inadmissible to the U.S. Unlawful Presence. If you leave the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States, you may be barred from admission even if you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or more you are inadmissible for ten years. 	eligible to	come into the United S	tates according to the terms of this advance you obtained advance parole. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the U.S. voluntarily before the start of removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years; if you were unlawfully present for one year or more you are inadmissible for ten years. Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed. National Benefits Center U. S. CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION SVC P.O. Box 648003	inadmissi	ble to the U.S.	-
National Benefits Center U. S. CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION SVC P.O. Box 648003	you obtaiı U.S. volu	ned advance parole. If y ntarily before the start of	bu were unlawfully present in the United S f removal proceedings, you are inadmissib	States for more than 180 days but less than one year and you leave the
U. S. CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION SVC P.O. Box 648003	Please see the add	itional information on the	e back. You will be notified separately ab	out any other cases you filed.
Lee's Summit MO 64002	U. S. CITIZENSH P.O. Box 648003	IP & IMMIGRATION	SVC
	Lee's Summit MO	64002			